

1. Title of the certificate ⁽¹⁾Dataelektronikerfaget⁽¹⁾ In the original language2. Translated title of the certificate ⁽¹⁾Computer Electronics⁽¹⁾ If applicable. This translation has no legal status.

3. Profile of skills and competences

The skilled computer electronics worker has shown competence in working with installation, operation and maintenance of computer and electronic systems in a very wide range of areas, from the entertainment industry to telemedicine and satellite-based navigation. This competence includes planning, assembling, start-up, maintenance, troubleshooting, repairing and documenting systems, devices and equipment for business and industry, computer companies and the electronics industry. The skilled technician is able to work according to current legislation, electronic safety, using technical documentation and quality control systems. Measuring technology, calculations, profitability assessments, information security, personal privacy protection and ethics are a part of this competence. This also includes computer architecture and system installation, operation and integration. The computer electronics technician has shown competence in selecting troubleshooting strategies, carrying out risk assessments and understanding new products and systems. The computer electronics technician also has shown competence in working precisely and is solution-oriented, independent and able to cooperate with others. The use of a precise technical language when communicating with clients, suppliers, support personnel, colleagues and representatives from other disciplines is also a part of this competence. The computer electronics technician is able to carry out work in accordance with current rules for Environment, Health and Safety.

4. Range of occupations accessible to the holder of the certificate ⁽¹⁾

Trade certificate as a skilled computer electronics technician

⁽¹⁾ If applicable(*) Explanatory note

This document is designed to provide additional information about the specified certificate and does not have any legal status in itself. The format of the description is based on the following texts: Council Resolution 93/C 49/01 of 3 December 1992 on the transparency of qualifications, Council Resolution 96/C 224/04 of 15 July 1996 on the transparency of vocational training certificates, and Recommendation 2001/613/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 10 July 2001 on mobility within the Community for students, persons undergoing training, volunteers, teachers and trainers.

More information available at: <http://europass.cedefop.eu.int>
© European Communities 2002

5. Official basis of the certificate

Name and status of the body awarding the certificate Trade certificate issued by the county administration	Name and status of the national/regional authority providing accreditation/recognition of the certificate The Royal Norwegian Ministry of Education and Research
Level of the certificate (national or international) EU classification level 4 in the European qualification framework Correspond with upper secondary level, ISCED 3	Grading scale / Pass requirements Passed with distinction, Passed, Failed
Access to next level of education/training The training/education together with further instruction in common core subjects qualify the candidate for admission to higher education	International agreements xxx
Legal basis Act of 17 July 1998 no 61 relating to Primary and Secondary Education (The Education Act), Regulation of 23 June 2006 no 724 relating to the Education Act. Regulation of 25 June 1999 no 708 relating to the Principles, Core Curriculum and Quality Framework of Primary and Secondary Education and Training

6. Officially recognised ways of acquiring the certificate

Description of vocational education and training received	Percentage of total programme (%)	Duration (hours/ weeks/months/years)
School-based	67%	3 years
Workplace-based	33%	1,5 years
Accredited prior learning
Total duration of the education/ training leading to the certificate
Entry requirements Completed Primary school
Additional information The training period consists of four years, and can take place as two years at school followed by two years of company based training, or one year at school followed by three years of company based training, or all four years in a company combined with school based training. Two years of the training consists of a total of 644 hours in Common core subjects, 1879 hours in Common programme subjects and 421 hours vocational specialization. Adult students with documented five years of work and a passed theoretical exam relevant to the subject, are qualified for a craft certificate examination according to §3-5 in the Education Act. Adult students are exempted from the requirement of common core subjects.
More information (including a description of the national qualifications system) available at: http://www.europass.no/fagbeskrivelser
National reference point		