Europass certificate supplement (*)

1. Title of the certificate (1)

Flystrukturmekanikerfaget

(1) In the original language

2. Translated title of the certificate (1)

Airframe Repair and Maintenance

(1) If applicable. This translation has no legal status.

3. Profile of skills and competences

The skilled airframe mechanic has shown competence in maintenance of structural aircraft frames and components. This competence includes assembling, dismantling, inspecting, checking for cracks and repairs. The skilled airframe mechanic is able to plan, carry out and document work in accordance with technical documentation, procedures and rules and regulations. The airframe mechanic has knowledge of the structural assembly and construction of aircrafts and their components, and is able to join these using different methods and materials. This person is able to think comprehensively and carry out analyses, and has an understanding of systems and safety. He or she is able to carry out quality controls and is environmentally aware. The airframe mechanic's competence is closely bound to current national and European provisions for basic education in technical aviation fields. The airframe mechanic is able to carry out work in accordance with current rules for Environment, Health and Safety.

4. Range of occupations accessible to the holder of the certificate (1)

Trade certificate as a skilled airframe mechanic

(1) If applicable

(*) Explanatory note

This document is designed to provide additional information about the specified certificate and does not have any legal status in itself. The format of the description is based on the following texts: Council Resolution 93/C 49/01 of 3 December 1992 on the transparency of qualifications, Council Resolution 96/C 224/04 of 15 July 1996 on the transparency of vocational training certificates, and Recommendation 2001/613/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 10 July 2001 on mobility within the Community for students, persons undergoing training, volunteers, teachers and trainers.
More information available at: http://europass.cedefop.eu.int
© European Communities 2002

5. Official basis of the certificate

Name and status of the body awarding the certificate	Name and status of the national/regional authority providing accreditation/recognition of the certificate
Trade certificate issued by the county administration	The Royal Norwegian Ministry of Education and Research
Level of the certificate (national or international)	Grading scale / Pass requirements
EU classification level 4 in the European qualification framework Correspond with upper secondary level, ISCED 3	Passed with distinction, Passed, Failed
Access to next level of education/training	International agreements
The training/education together with further instruction in common core subjects qualify the candidate for admission to higher education	xxx

Legal basis

Act of 17 July 1998 no 61 relating to Primary and Secondary Education (The Education Act), Regulation of 23 June 2006 no 724 relating to the Education Act. Regulation of 25 June 1999 no 708 relating to the Principles, Core Curriculum and Quality Framework of Primary and Secondary Education and Training

6. Officially recognised ways of acquiring the certificate

Description of vocational education and training received	Percentage of total programme (%)	Duration (hours/ weeks/months/years)
School-based	60%	3 years
Workplace-based	40%	2 years
Accredited prior learning
Total duration of the education/ training leading to the certificate

Entry requirements

Completed Primary school

Additional information

The training period consists of five years, and can take place as three years at school followed by two years of company based training, or one / two year at school followed by four/ three years of company based training, or all five years in a company combined with school based training. Three years of the training consists of a total of 644 hours in Common core subjects, 1879 hours in Common programme subjects and 421 hours vocational specialization. Adult students with documented five years of work and a passed theoretical exam relevant to the subject, are qualified for a craft certificate examination according to §3-5 in the Education Act. Adult students are exempted from the requirement of common core subjects.

More information (including a description of the national qualifications system) available at:

http://www.europass.no/fagbeskrivelser

National reference point